KENTUCKY WORKSHOP FOR THE ADULT BLIND

KENTUCKY WORKSHOP FOR THE ADULT BLIND

At the Kentucky Workshop for the Adult Blind, under the same supervision as the Kentucky School for the Blind, those past school age are taught how to make and sell brooms, mops, and similar salable articles so that they can run shops of their own.

Instruction in making and means for selling needlework is also provided.

Tuition is free and after some proficiency is attained, wages are paid.

Full information may be obtained by addressing:

To Parents of Children Who Do Not See:

It is the ardent wish of the Board that every child who is eligible, shall attend this school and receive an education which will enable him to become a useful, happy and self-supporting citizen.

The course of study is similar to that offered by the public schools but peculiarly adapted for the blind.

Skillful, devoted teachers will care for the comfort, health and welfare of your child in an atmosphere that is homelike and wholesome.

Letters to parents are written periodically so that they may be kept advised as to the health and progress of the children. In case of illness, children have expert doctors and their parents are promptly notified.

All children return to their homes for the summer vacation but extended holidays are not encouraged during the school year.

Visitors are cordially welcome at any time.

Further information will be gladly given—address inquiries to:

Early in its training, the blind child is taught to read with its fingers, (Revised Braille System), and thus it is enabled to develop self-improvement through the reading of good literature.

Especially popular with the older girls is the cooking class where foods and dainty menus are planned and prepared.

Because of the natural talent for music which the blind have, our Boys' Band is the goal for which many strive. It furnishes the music for the activities of the School.

STATE OF KENTUCKY OFFERS BENEFITS AND PLEASURES OF EDUCATION TO HER BLIND CHILDREN

Every blind child in Kentucky, or any Kentucky child whose sight is so poor as to prevent it from attending an ordinary school, can get a free education at the Kentucky School for the Blind in Louisville, Kentucky. There is no charge for board, tuition or books.

There are separate schools for the white children and for the colored childred, some distance apart, each with its own set of teachers. The State has endeavored to make these schools everything they should be for the education, health, and comfort of the blind children of Kentucky. The buildings are large and beautifully situated on rolling grounds with magnificent forest trees, and filled with every possible device for the training of the blind. The teachers are the best that can be had, thoroughly experienced in teaching those who cannot see.

The school session opens the second Wednesday of September, and closes the second Wednesday in June, the children going to their homes for the summer vacation.

To get into the school, it is necessary that the child have too little sight to attend an ordinary school, be between six and eighteen years of age, have a sound mind, be free from disease, and a resident of Kentucky.

If you know of such a child, write to the KENTUCKY SCHOOL FOR THE BLIND, 1867 Frankfort Avenue, Louisville, Ky.

THE DINING ROOM

Popular three times every day. A competent dietician sees that the food is of high quality, abundant in quantity, served cleanly, and of proper variety to develop strong, healthy boys and girls.
